JOHN A. THATCHER DEAD.

Mr. John A. Thatcher, a valued member of DAILY RACING FORM's staff, died of consumption yesterday afternoon at Hahnemann Hospital, this city. Intelligence of his death will come with a shock to a host of friends and acquaintances west and east. His connection with newspaper work was of many years standing and on many influential publications his crisp, gossip style of composition won favor and readers. His field was mainly in the line of racing and billiards, but he was a man well read and well informed on all current lines of thought. At one time sporting editor of the Tribune, he also did much work for the News and other local newspapers. Born at Cleveland, Ohio, he was forty-eight years of age at the time of his death. He leaves a widow and one child. Mr. Thatcher was a genial, companionable man of a cheerful temperament, yet a man of resolute pride and confidence in himself. His death was sudden, unexpected and peaceful.

FAVORITES AT LAKESIDE.

The six $400 purses offered at Lakeside yesterday were divided equally between F. T. Wood, H. Robinson and James Arthur. Of the six races, five were won by favorites, and consequently the returning crowd was a jovial one.

The track was dry from rail to fence, but as is generally the case after heavy rains, the going was not elastic, but on the other hand, seemed hard and dead. This was a drawback to fast time and makes May Beach's performance, five furlongs in 1:01, a phenomenal one.

This speedy daughter of Bobby Beach—Faithless was in the fourth race along with St. Cuthbert, Hermoso and other fast ones and was asked to carry 112 pounds. She is at her very best now and the ring figured she had the race at her mercy and never offered better than 1 to 4 against her chances. The filly won and earned a grand victory for herself, but in no way did she come home like one has reason to believe a 1 to 4 shot should.

Ross was up on May Beach, and he succeeded in getting a flying start, but Hermoso, who also got away running, hung right to her, and the pair, racing like a team, stepped the first three furlongs in 35 seconds. Then Hermoso said "take it," and for an instant Wood's sprinter had everything her own way. Rounding into the stretch, however, St. Cuthbert made play for the flying leader, and below the sixteenth post he began to gradually forge to the front. Ross, feeling May Beach tiring under him and seeing St. Cuthbert close in on the filly, at once went to work, and, hard ridden and out to the last ounce, May Beach staggered under the wire a winner by a length. St. Cuthbert is a horse of high grade speed himself, and the fact that he has bad legs is the only thing that keeps him from being in the front rank among stake winners. The chances are that had the track been at its best May Beach would have beaten the track record of one minute flat for the five furlongs.

Ed Trotter, who is training for H. Robinson certainly has that man's horses in the pink of condition and this in part explains why the stable captured two of the six purses.

Molo's win of the fifth event shows that he was fit and ready to run the race of his life, otherwise he could not have won. Down the backstretch persons holding Molo tickets would gladly have sold out their interest at 50 cents on the dollar, but when "Wood" Hoffman's ex-bread winner got clear sailing in the stretch he relieved his backers of all uneasiness and won going away.

The racing all the way through was rather tame and the only finish of the day that stirred up the least bit of enthusiasm was in the third event—a dash of a mile—which Moroni, cleverly ridden by Knight, won by a head from Sidbow. Moroni was the favorite at about 4 to 5, but the bulk of the backing fell to Sidbow, who opened at 2 to 1 and was backed down to 8 to 5. The latter was well meant all right enough, but the best he could do was to get second place.

Prince Plenty, ridden to perfection by the once popular and always honest jockey Willie Caywood, captured the initial mile maiden race with ease. The Prince belongs to F. T. Wood and went to the post unbacked at 10 to 1. He is a big fine looking colt by Galore—Minerva, and as this was his first time at the races, and as he did all that was asked of him, it is reasonable to believe that he will annex many a purse to his Texas owner's bank account before the season is over.

The Cuban Girl, racing for the first time in H. Robinson's colors, won the four and one-half furlongs two-year-old race off by herself.

Starter Dwyer sent the big field in the last race away at the first break to a fine start, and Barney Saal, the 11 to 5 favorite, won from end to end.

TWO GREAT RACES.

This is one of the most interesting weeks of the racing year, for the reason that two very important events are down for decision. These are the running of the Brooklyn Handicap and the Belmont Stakes. Both of these stakes make up a large portion of the yearly turf history.

The handicap is worth this year, as usual, $10,000. It will be run on Saturday, the opening day of the Gravesend meeting. It is sure to attract an enormous crowd, and it promises to be a good race. There is a peculiar attractiveness about this race which makes the winning of it more desirable to owners than the mere cash consideration. Many a horseman would give the value of the race simply for the honor of owning a Brooklyn handicap winner. So far as it is possible to judge at this time the field on Saturday may be made up as follows:

Starters.	Weight.	Jockeys.
Imp	128	P. Clay
Jean Beraud	127	N Turner
Ethelbert	127	Maher
Box	118	O'Connor
Approval	114	Odom
Rafaello	113	Jenkins
Half Time	108	Mitchell
Kriss Kringle	106
The Kentuckian	106	Clawson
Wait Not	103	Shaw
Survivor	100	McCue
Knight of the Garter	100	A Hewitt
Stratheonan	93	Henry

On paper this seems to be a very open race, in spite of the fact that Ethelbert was such a very easy winner of the Metropolitan and would seem to have the race at his mercy on that form. Since the running of the Metropolitan, however, The Kentuckian has run a mile in 1:39, which was a very creditable performance and seems to indicate that he is by no means out of it. Kriss Kringle has also shown the form which made the west look upon him as a great horse, and with only 106 pounds to carry he, too, seems a dangerous element. Jean Beraud is going very well in his work, and the fact that Mr. Whitney was willing to match him against Ethelbert after the latter had won the Metropolitan is sufficient to indicate that he is a very good horse at present. Approval, Survivor, Rafaello and others have performed well enough to enable one to say that they at least have a chance.

All that is necessary to a successful race is a good track and fine weather. The Brooklyn

Jockey Club announces that it has arranged for unusual transportation facilities, such as special trains from Long Island City, express trains on the "L" roads and trolleys.

The Belmont is perhaps the most interesting of all races for three-year-olds, with the exception of possibly the Lawrence Realization, run at the July meeting at Sheepshead Bay. It is a question, however, if the Belmont is not the more interesting. By the time the Realization is run the status of the three-year-old is pretty well determined. With the Belmont things are different. There is more or less uncertainty attendant upon the latter event. The fact that Kilmarnock won the Withers does not indicate that Mr. Whitney's colt is the best of the three-year-olds by any means. Nor does the defeat of Mr. Featherstone's Mesmerist mean that the son of Albert will not come up to the expectations of his owner and trainer. Mesmerist has a chance to improve over his race in the Withers. So have Kilogram, Magnificent, David Garrick and others who ran in that stake. The fact that the Belmont is three furlongs further than the Withers lends additional interest.

It is unfortunate, however, that Kilmarnock is not engaged in the Belmont, for another meeting between the Whitney colt and Mr. Featherstone's Mesmerist would certainly have drawn a large crowd to the Westchester course. But Mesmerist may meet John Boden's Magnificent, August Belmont's Brigadier, John E. Madden's Gulden, Philip J. Dwyer's Withers, Pierre Lorillard's David Garrick or Maribert, Eugene Leigh's Ildrim and possibly others. There are enough horses of good class to insure the Belmont being an exceedingly interesting affair. This will be the thirty-fourth renewal of the stake. It will be run on Thursday, which is the last day of the Westchester meeting. On the same day will be run the Eclipse Stakes, for two-year-olds. This is one of the most valuable fixtures of the meeting. It will be worth in the neighborhood of $12,000.—New York Herald.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

At the request of the managers of the Queen City Jockey Club, whose races are now in progress at Newport, starter Holtman has postponed his departure for Chicago until Saturday night of this week, and will not arrive here until Sunday morning, instead of Thursday as originally planned. He has arranged, however, to send his chief assistant here and the latter will begin the schooling of horses at Hawthorne tomorrow. Lessons will be given at the barrier daily from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., with the purpose of getting the animals accustomed to the new mode of starting before the racing season opens next Monday. Holtman is having good luck with the flag at Newport this week. His send-offs have been so uniformly fair and even, that all the racing reporters have made special comment on it in their news reports. The Cincinnati Enquirer of Tuesday refers to it as "the best work with the flag ever seen in the south."

W. S. Barnes arrived at Hawthorne yesterday with The Lady in Blue, Lady Elite, Scarlet Lily, Shalldendale, Prince of Reason, The Conqueror, Prince of Victory and several others. Robinson & Moore also got in with eight head, among which are Larkspur, Isabinda and John Yerkes. William Wallace wired yesterday for six stalls at Hawthorne, but had to be turned away, as all the stables are full, as well as all the available barns in the vicinity of the track, over one thousand thoroughbreds being now quartered there.

APRIL AND OTHER FORM BOOKS.

April books of Form Charts in paper cover are on sale. They contain all the Form Charts of all tracks from April 1 to April 30 inclusive. Price, $1.00.

DOING WELL AT NEWPORT.

It seems evident that the Cincinnati tracks are to share in the prosperity which has attended every race meeting held so far this year. The attendance at Newport Monday was the best for an opening day in the history of the track. Of this and other features of the opening day, yesterday's Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune says:

"Manager Fowler, of the Newport track, was highly pleased with the opening day yesterday, especially when he learned that more money was taken in at the gate than on any other opening day in the history of the Queen City Jockey Club. What was most gratifying, however, especially to race-goers, was the way the betting ring was conducted. It was a bona fide open ring, and each one of the seven bookies who cut in put up the usual fee of $100 for the privilege of booking. The seven bookmakers who were in line are men well known on Western race tracks, and the fact that they are here will do much towards improving the betting from day to day. 'Virginia' Carroll, W. E. Applegate, Horace Argo, Barney Wolf, Eddie Austin, Harry Huey, Jimmie Duckworth and John Parnell McInerney were the regulars who had their slates up, while Seth Jacobs presided over the destinies of the field book. There was a good play on every race, and most of the bookies were surprised at the briskness of the wagering. That there was plenty of money in the ring is a certainty, for one of the bookmakers won $1,075 on the first race. The play, considering the strangeness of the card, was very good, and it is certain to improve each day. Colonel Applegate voiced the opinion of several of the bookies when he said: 'The game here is good, and will be better every day, mark my word. I have never seen so much money on a Cincinnati track in several years as I did today, and it was Monday, too. Some good races will draw out big crowds here, and then the bookies will have to hustle to handle the money. I think by the time the horses go to Latonia next Monday, there will be ten bookmakers in line here.'

"Secretary Ed Hopper, of Latonia, and Charles Price, the former secretary of the Louisville Jockey Club, circulated in the crowd. The latter will be one of the judges at Latonia. Mr. Hopper was pleased with Newport's showing, and said it surprised him and augurs well for a fine meeting. Mr. Hopper says he expects not less than ten bookies to be on at Latonia, and gave the following reasons for it:

"Newport got first whack at the sport and the track will do very well this week. By the time Latonia opens, next Monday, the players will have a line on the horses, and there will be some great betting. The game will be worked up and, of course, Latonia will benefit by it, so that I expect there will be plenty of play for the bookmakers. When there is the play you can get the books. We have a good start and will improve each day.'

"J. J. McCafferty arrived at Newport yesterday morning with thirteen horses, in the lot being Cleora, who is a candidate for the Latonia Oaks, and Fleuron. Jockey Gilmore accompanied the stable, and will do all its riding. Mr. McCafferty will race here until July and then ship East.

"'Virginia' Carroll has been transformed into a Chesterfield. Yesterday when a bettor handed up a dollar to him to wager on Dreggheda, he suavely said: 'Two-dollar bets, please. The field book takes single dollars.'

"Jockey Tom Britton had another mishap added to his long record of falls, tumbles and accidents. He had the mount on Banbury in the third race, and going down the backstretch the horse had plenty of speed and got jammed in the bunch going around the turn. Britton was compelled to pull up to get clear, and just when he looked safe the horse stumbled and went down. Britton took a header, but luckily escaped injury beyond a severe shaking up. Banbury also was unhurt, and after running a mile he was caught. The judges afterward ordered that Banbury's entry be refused until further orders.

"Starter James Caldwell, who will wield the flag at Latonia, watched the work of Jake Holtman yesterday, and was much pleased with the latter's good showing. Mr. Holtman certainly did well, and did not have a bad start during the afternoon. Starter Caldwell will more than likely succeed Mr. Holtman at Newport.

 Winner—B. c, by Galore—Minerva.
 Went to post at 2:15. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second, third and fourth doing their best. Prince Plenty was skillfully handled and considering it was his first start he ran a good race. Caywood had to shake him up a trifle on the stretch turn but after that the Prince had everything his own way. Tamer, always prominent, made a strong bid opposite the paddock but hung a trifle under punishment at the end. Ross broke flying with Lydia S. and on the first turn interfered with everyone near him. Orlandine made up ground throughout. Crest, heavily backed, showed but little speed and was a false alarm. It was a very ordinary lot.

Prince Plenty, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Tamer, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Lydia S., show, 3 to 1. John W. Patton, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Crest, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

17946 SECOND RACE—4 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $400. $75 to second; $25 to third. 2-year-olds. Allowances.

 Winner—B. f, by Strathmore—Lavina.
 Went to post at 2:50. At post 5 minutes. Start good for all but Anxious. Won without an effort; second driven out and fully extended. Third and fourth driving. The Cuban Girl is the best filly shown here so far and had an easy time in disposing of this lot. In fact Narvaez had a stout hold of the filly's head during the entire journey. Miss Daniels had no mischances and ran her best race. Ross drove her hard from the head of the stretch home. Cora Moree hardly knew what was expected of her and for a green one ran a good race finishing gamely under punishment. Lady Seabrook is a grand looking filly. She showed some early speed and should not remain in the maiden class long. Anxious had no chance to win from where she got away.
 Scratched—17921 Edith Q., 101; 17921 Tenny Belle, 101; 17841 Alice Scorpion, 101; 17921 Bonitary, 101; 17858 Gibson Girl, 107.

 Winner—B. h, by Sayre—Stephanie.
 Went to post at 3:20. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden; second and third driving hard. Moroni liked the dead track, was ridden to perfection and won like a good race horse. He had some bad racing luck early but overcame this gamely and at the head of the stretch had all of the others beaten. Sidbow had no excuses other than he is faint hearted. Meddler seemed to be going the easiest of the lot on the far turn, but when Kiley called upon him in the stretch the old horse appeared to be all out and swerved badly. Brulare finished stoutly. Cora Havill II. led on suffrage and in the stretch fell back to her proper place.
 Moroni, place, out. Sidbow, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Meddler, show, 7 to 10.

 Winner—Ch. f, by Bobby Beach—Faithless.
 Went to post at 3:50. Off at the first break to an excellent start. Won driving hard and out to the last ounce; second and third doing their best. May Beach broke flying, showed a phenomenal turn of speed, but barely lasted long enough to stall off St. Cuthbert's rush in the stretch. The latter is a horse of fair class, but has bad legs and these seemed to hurt him in the last sixteenth. Hermoso shot his bolt trying to stay with May Beach in the first three furlongs and in the stretch stopped almost to a walk. This accounts for Emma M. being third. At that the latter ran a good race and can win when placed right. Ailanto was never prominent, and this race probably served as a workout for him.
 Scratched—17785 Peace, 103.
 Overweights—Ailanto, 34 pounds.

 Went to post at 4:15. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily at the end after an early drive; second and third were under keen pressure. Molo was the best and went to the front on call. It looked rather dubious for him at one time down the backstretch, but Narvaez rated along on the inside and waited until the natural spread came at the head of the stretch before making his move. Strangest was badly outrun in the first part of the race, but from the half-mile ground home he closed ground rapidly. Waldo, on Maggie Davis took a desperate chance to get through on the inside at the first turn and succeeded in getting through, too. This youngster is a dare devil. Red Pirate about ran his race. Nobleman showed speed and can win when ridden by a competent jockey. Ed Gartland II. showed a surprising turn of speed. Holdup did his best.
 Scratched—17901 Hub Prather, 99; (17922) Jim McLeevy, 112.

 Went to post at 4:45. Off at the first break to a good start. Won very easily. Second, third, fourth and fifth were driving to the limit. Barney Saal was lucky and showed the most speed of the lot. He broke running and was never hard pressed. Halk Line had no excuse whatever. He got a good send-off and was well handled. Maryland Reserve closed stoutly through the stretch. After going about a sixteenth of a mile the field was badly strung out. Considering the size of the field the start was a beauty.

Winner—Br. c. by Hindoo—Cherry Blossom.
Went to the post at 3:03. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won eased up; second driving. Alard Scheck got off well and was finely ridden. He is a good colt. Siddara ran a good race and seemed likely to prove the winner at the stretch turn but Scheck came away when called on. Siddara showed a great burst of speed when rounding the turn. Sculptress ran her race. Sophie S. was crowded in the stretch or she might have been closer up.

Scratched—17884 Seething, 110.

Alard Scheck, place, 1 to 3; show, out. Siddara, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Sculptress, show, evens. Myra Morella, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Br. c. by Candemas—My Own.
Went to post at 3:35. At post 9 minutes. Start poor. Won pulled up; the next three were driving. Easter Card was much the best. He displayed great speed and held the others safe from start to finish. Iron Chancellor ran an impressive race. Connie Lee had no excuses. Chorus Boy showed some early speed. Barbee closed a lot of ground from where he got off. Croesus showed but little speed and ran a bad race.

Scratched—1866 Old Fox, 107.

Overweights—Tewanda, 2 pounds; Chorus Boy, 2.

Easter Card, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Iron Chancellor, place, 30 to 1; show, 15 to 1. Connie Lee, show, 7 to 10. Croesus, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5.

Time, 13, 25, 50, 1:15, 1:29.
Winner—B. g. by Leonatus—Dahlia.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Rinaldo II. was slow to begin, but was much the best at the weights and was drawing away at the finish. Bon Jour finished strongly and was the best of the others. Dolando ran well. Exit was tired out in chasing Rinaldo II. Outside of the winner the race was probably not a true run one on account of the maiden jockeys. Bangor was practically left at the post.

Rinaldo II., place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Bon Jour, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Dolando, show, 2 to 1.

17952 SECOND RACE—Last 5-8 Mile. Eclipse Course. $550 added. 2-year-olds. Allowances.

Time, 59.
Winner—Br. c. by Hanover—Workmate.
Went to post at 3:02. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Handwork is a good colt and could have won further off, but Maher drew the finish fine. Golden Age displayed his usual early speed, but was stopping at the end. Ballyhoo Bey was probably a bit short and the race will do him good. King Pepper swerved badly soon after the start and Jenkins did not persevere with him.

Scratched—Prince Charles, 108; 17940 Lambkin, 112; Bedeck, 108.
Handwork, place, 3 to 5. Golden Age, place, 6 to 5. Ballyhoo Bey, place, 4 to 5. No show betting.

17953 THIRD RACE—Last 5-8 Mile Eclipse Course. $550 added. 2-year-olds. Maidens. Allowances.
